

GLOBAL GOOD GOVERNANCE AWARDS 2016

Taaleem Foundation (www.taaleem.pk) has been selected for the Global Good Governance Award 2016. The award would be received by the Chairman Taaleem Foundation at the Global Donors Forum at Istanbul - Turkey on 26th May 2016.

Global Good Governance Awards “3G Awards” are based on a proprietary methodology “3G Methodology” developed by Cambridge IF Analytical. 3G Methodology is based on a score card called “3G Card”. From the four nominations in each category, the winners are selected through a global poll. Global Good Governance Awards “3G Awards” are presented to governments, corporates and non-governmental organisations (NGOs) for excellence in following domains:

- 1: Transparency: Commitment to operate ethically and legally, with integrity, transparency and accountability.
- 2: Social Responsibility: Promote best practices in social responsibility, economic viability, and environmental stewardship.
- 3: Sustainability: Promote sustainable practices and initiatives that embrace the triple bottom line: economics, social equity and environment.
- 4: Impact: Initiatives or contributions resulted in improved outcomes to community or industry or country.
- 5: Innovation: Development of new ideas, practices, or products that promote and/or improve business practices in the realm of governance.

3G Winners’ Selection Process

“We would like to congratulate the team at Taaleem Foundation for winning “Critics Choice 3G Literacy and Female Education Award 2016” at upcoming Global Good Governance Awards (3G Awards). 3G Awards are presented to governments, corporates, and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) for excellence in transparency, good governance and social responsibility. The 3G Award winners are chosen based on the 5 pillars of Transparency, Social Responsibility, Sustainability, Impact and Innovation as per the 3G Card after extensive research done by the Awards Research Committee”.
